Our comfortable, quiet home is located in the “Four Seasons” neighborhood of St. Johnsbury, an easy drive from Karne Choling in any kind of weather. We offer two bedrooms on the second floor, just a few steps down the hall from our shrine room and morning coffee room – both of which you are welcome to use during your stay. In warmer months, guests may relax on our spacious, sunny deck. Walks on the well-groomed trails in the nearby woods are an attraction any time of year.

While we enjoy conversation with our guests, we will respect your retreat experience by honoring whatever level of speech you wish to observe.

Well-behaved dogs are welcome to stay here, as well. We work out of the home and a nearby office, so we are able to provide attention and a walk during the day for a small extra charge.
